

STATUTORY WARNING

(वैधानिक चेतावनी)

It has been brought to the notice of University Administration that a few candidates have been misguided and cheated by scamsters. They have been lured for fake marksheets, migration certificate and or degree certificates.

Such degrees are declared fake and null & void by University Administration at the time of verification by appointing authority, councils and other higher learning institutions.

University is issuing this Statutory Warning to those scamsters that it is an illegal activity and they are liable for criminal prosecution as per law of the land.

Stake Holders are alarmed and alerted to be aware of such scamsters and not to fall prey to such cheatings.

University initiates stringent legal actions against such fraudsters under various sections of IPC.

Such fake degree cases of cheating are referred to crime cell, cyber security and other investigating agencies.

Parents and all stake holders are advised to be careful against fake degree racket.
