

Bhagwant University Vice Chancellor Visits ICTP Trieste Italy

Prof. Virendra Kumar Sharma, Vice Chancellor of Bhagwant University Ajmer visited International Centre for Theoretical Physics (ICTP) Trieste, Italy during March 29- April 6, 2016. He participated and attended the workshop 'Entrepreneurship for Scientists and Engineers in Developing World'. More than forty five scientists, engineers, industrialist, and students from across the world including Spain, Argentina, Venezuela, Brazil, Cuba, Romania, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Colombia, Indonesia, Vietnam etc attended the residential workshop. Prof. Sharma delivered a few lectures on current schemes of Central Government to promote Entrepreneurship amongst Indian Youth including Start Up India, Stand Up India, Digital India, special entrepreneurship scheme for SC/ ST etc. The workshop was organized by Indian origin Scientist from America Dr Raghu Surya and Dr Deepali Bhatt Chauhan of Institute of Physics, London. Speaker Dr Bernard of USA spoke on technological aspects, Japanese lady Dr Humano Yumika who came from Switzerland talked about legal aspects and patent laws, Dr Secher David from London talked about human perspectives, Dr Niemela Joseph of Italy briefed on sources of funding, Dr San Jose Rasula of Philippines described that how the project work done by students lead them to become successful entrepreneur. Group project on Recycling of Sanitary Napkins lead by IIT Delhi student Shatanu Nigam was judged the top proposal of the workshop. Entrepreneur Proposal for Solar Lighting of Rajasthan Villages by Prof. Sharma also got accolades from all participants due to being the need of present times.

Group photograph of workshop participants

Prof. Sharma presenting his group project to judges

ICTP campus horticulture view

Receiving certification from Dr Secher David of London